Membership Benefits

Located in a heritage listed historical house in the heart of the city, complete with onsite parking, the Club sets the standard for exemplary customer service and hospitality. It provides a quiet and private atmosphere for business meetings and has the facilities to cater for larger functions and conferences.

Members receive discounted accommodation room rates and the proximity to the CBD and local amenities makes the Club an ideal location. A further advantage of membership is access to equally prestigious reciprocal clubs around the world, many of which offer high standard accommodation in central locations at reasonable prices.

What happens next?

Once you submit your membership application, it will be tabled to the monthly Membership and Marketing Committee for their consideration. After 2 weeks, your application will then be presented at the Board Meeting for them to determine the outcome. Following their endorsement, your name along with other applicants, will be listed on the Club noticeboard and electronic newsletter for a period of 14 days. Successful applicants will be notified with a letter in the mail inviting them to participate in an orientation with the Club Secretary.
